

History

Florence Nightingale

Talk to your family and ask them who in the world has given you a better life. Can you draw a picture of them and write sentences about how they have improved your life. Remember your punctuation!

What do you know about Florence Nightingale? Do some research about her on the internet.

Can you write a character profile about Florence Nightingale – what does she look like? What was her job? Where did she live? Remember to use adjectives to describe her.

Create a timeline of the life of Florence Nightingale – what did she achieve in her life?

Draw pictures showing how you think a hospital used to look like when Florence Nightingale was alive.

Have a conversation with an older member of your family, ask them to explain to you how things have changed since they were young. Write sentences about what you have found out about.

Have a conversation with someone who has been in hospital. Ask them to explain what it was like. Can you write down all the adjectives they used to describe the hospital.

Research and find out about an object that is no longer used. Why isn't it used anymore? Has something else replaced it? What does the object look like? Draw a picture and label the object.

Art

Pop Art

Choose an item from around the house. Can you draw and colour it in the style of Andy Warhol?

Look at the artwork of Romero Britto. Write about the colours, shapes and patterns he uses in his pictures. Are there repeating patterns? Has he used primary and secondary colours?

Draw your own art in the style of Romero Britto.

P.E.

Gymnastics

Think of a gymnastics routine and write it down.

Record yourself completing a gymnastic routine.

Teach a member of your family your routine.

R.E.

Why does Christmas matter to Christians?

Think about what Christmas means to you - Write about things you do on or around Christmas. What family traditions do you have?

Can you draw a picture of something you do with your family at Christmas?

Can you draw the story of Jesus' birth in the form of a cartoon strip? Think about the order of the story and try to use speech bubbles.

Ready!

Capel!

Go!

Again!

Autumn 2

DT

Make a model of a habitat for an insect or small creature using whatever materials you have. Think about their basic needs and where they live.

Write about what went well with your model. Did it look like you wanted it to? What didn't work? How could you make it better?

I.C.T

Write about some of the different ways we have communicated with each other in the past and in the present. Why do you think things might have changed?

Can you design a poster about staying safe on the internet? What information should we not tell anyone?