

Maths

Use a ruler or tape measure and measure at least 10 things around your house. Now put them in order of size.

You have a £100 work out what you could buy with this money, try and buy as many things as you can.

Plan a party and write a shopping list for the food you would eat. How much does it all cost?

Measure how tall you and your family are. Write a list of Write down the measurements. Who are the tallest and the shortest?

English

Write a recount about a special day or event.

Write the instructions for playing a game you know well.

Write an adventure story which includes a volcano or an earthquake

Write a report for an event you have attended, remember to include –where, when, what, who, why?

Geography

Research and name six different countries in Europe and write down their capital cities.

Locate some of the worlds volcanos on a map, write down their names and what country they are in.

Write a list of countries found in the northern hemisphere and then put them in alphabetical order.

Research and write about what happened at Pompeii.

Plot as many volcanos as you can on a map of the world.

Research what happens when there is an earthquake and write about it.

Art & Design

Create a piece of art in the style of Andy Goldsworthy and photograph it.

Research and write about the artist Henry Moore

Look at the sheep drawings of Henry Moore now draw an object in the same style.

Build a model of a volcano

Sketch a sculpture of either Henry Moore or Anthony Gormley.

Draw a picture of one of Richard Long's Sculptures

Year 3: Spring 2022 Extreme Earth

RE and PSHE

Write a list of things you would be responsible for if you had a pet.

Draw a picture to represent each day of the creation story.

Write a list of questions you could ask God about how and why he created the world.

Write a list of all the different emotions you can think of then use a dictionary to find the meaning of the words

Draw a picture of some of the people you have a relationship with like, family, friends.

Computers

Create a fact file by researching something you like, use sub-heading in your work.

Research a country in Europe and make a poster about it, hand drawn or using the computer.

Find out about the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn, present what you have learnt to a family member.

Use Google earth to locate some of the volcanos around the world

Spanish

Draw and label in Spanish as many pets as you can.

Design the layout of a zoo and label the enclosures for each animal in Spanish.

Draw a picture of your house, now label each room in Spanish.

Watch or listen to the story of the Three Little Pigs in Spanish.

PE

Plan a healthy meal using the 'Eatwell' plate.

Make up an exercise routine lasting at least 5minutes and complete it every day for a week.

Research the game of netball and write about it. What are the rules? How many players are there?

Practice accurately throwing a ball into a net or bucket. How many goals can you score in 2minutes? Can you beat your score? Why not challenge your family.

Research a football team. Who are some of the players? Who owns the club? What division do they play in? What colour is their kit, can you draw it?